

Scenario 1:

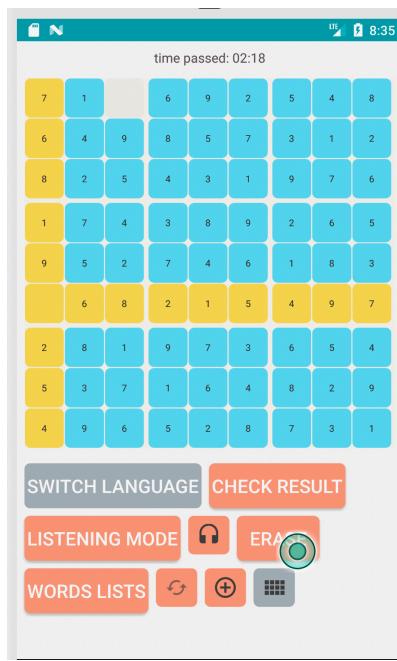

Given: that listening comprehension mode is enabled
Or normal text mode is enabled

When: the student first clicks on the cells which has been entered in an answer and then clicks on the erase button

Then: the cell will be erased and be empty

Before: in listening mode or normal text mode

when: user first clicks on the cells which has been entered in an answer and then press import button

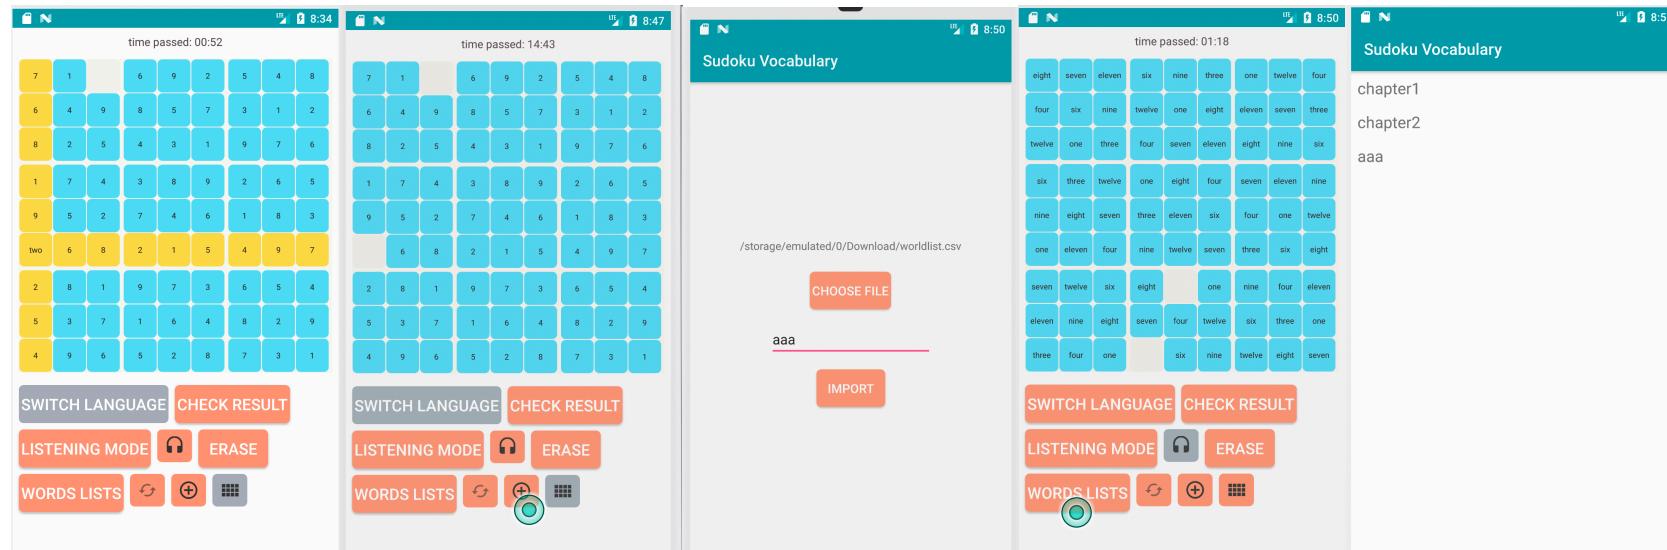

After: cell has been cleared

Scenario 2:

Given: that listening comprehension mode is enabled
Or normal text mode is enabled

When: the student click the import button and choose a csv file from his phone

Then: the app will import a list of words from the chosen csv file into the word list of app

Before: in listening mode or normal text mode

when: 1. User press import button

2. and choose file and naming the word list

After: 1. user can check the imported list by pressing wordlists button

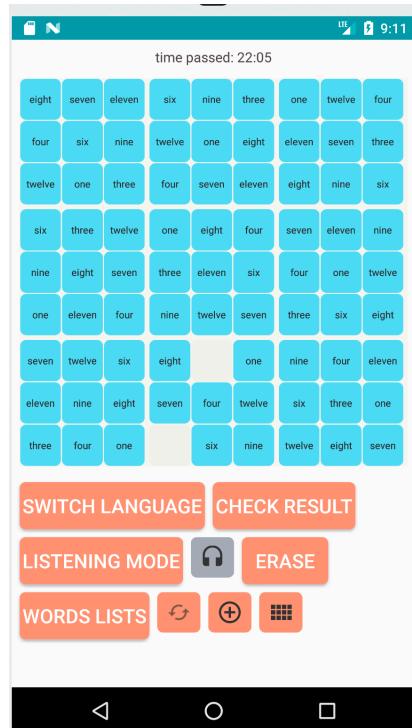

2. lists has been imported

Scenario 3:

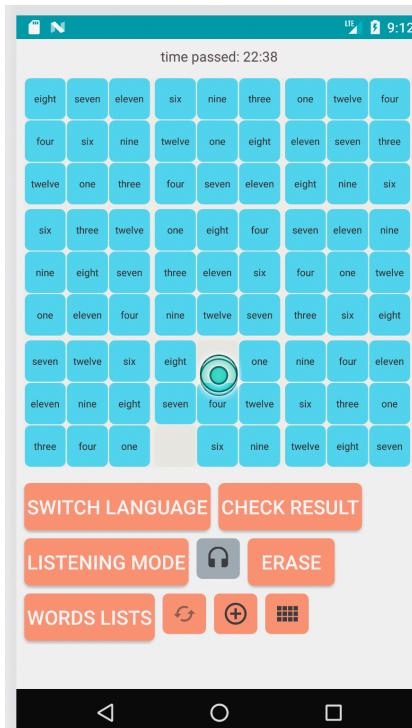

Given: that listening comprehension mode is enabled
Or normal text mode is enabled

When: the student clicks on one of the empty cells

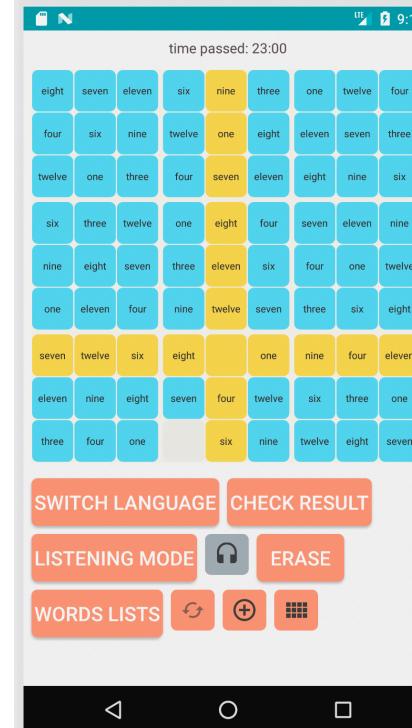

Then: the program highlights the row and column of that empty cell by showing a crosshair in colour

Before: in listening mode or normal text mode

when: User press empty cell

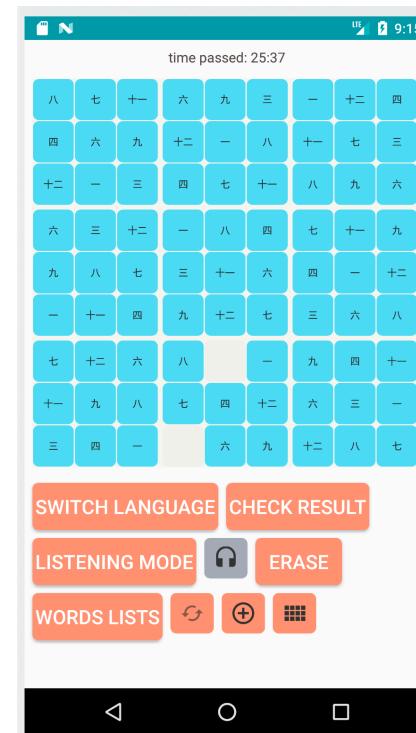

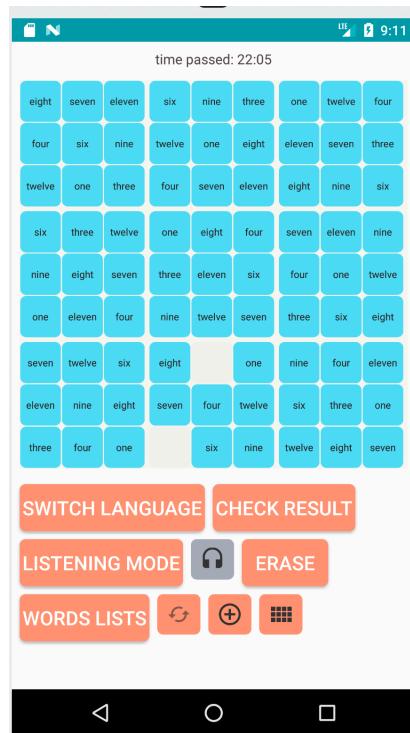

After: the program highlights the row and column

Scenario 4:

Given: that normal text mode is enabled

When: the student clicks on switch language button

Then: the program will switch the languages it displays in the prefilled cell

Before: in listening mode or normal text mode

when: User press switch language button

After: the program will switch the languages

Scenario 5:

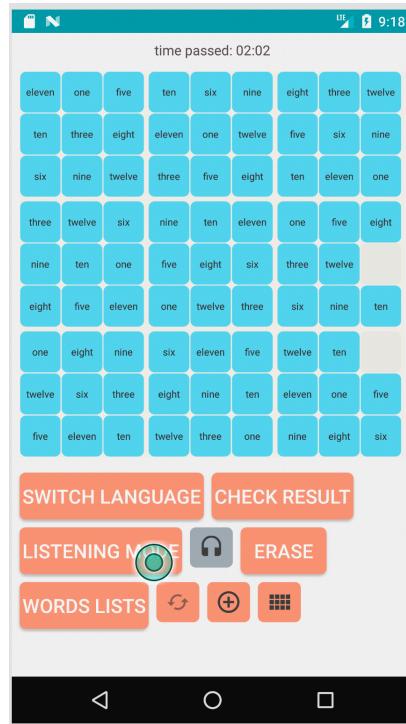

Given: that normal text mode is enabled

When: the student clicks listening mode button

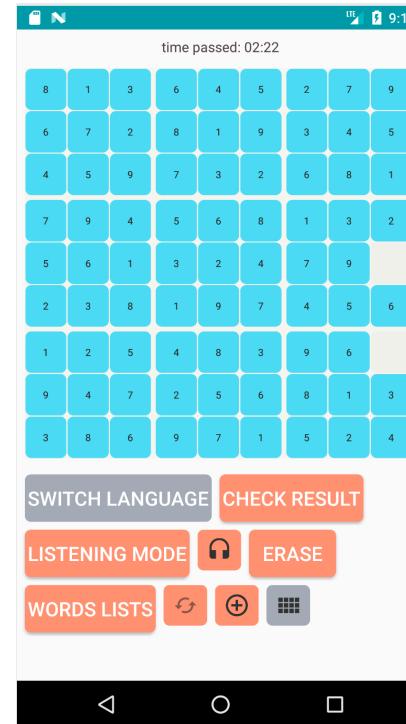

Then: the student sees a standard Sudoku grid with some prefilled cells showing digits in the range 1..9/1...4/1...6/1...12 accordingly and all other cells empty

Before: in normal text mode when: User press listening mode button

After: the student sees a standard Sudoku grid

